

THE QUAY

EXETER CANAL & QUAY TRUST LTD

Saturday 23 September

Sunday 24 September

11:00am	Arrival of sailing barge 'Snark' at King's Wharf Cannon Firing by Trafalgar Gun Company
12:00pm	Arrival of Mayor and Mace Sergeant to greet 'Snark' Cannon Firing
Afternoon	Informal public tours of 'Snark'
2.00pm	Historic Quay Walk With the Red Coats. Starts at Custom House.
2.30pm	Parker's Harbour Custom House Public lecture by Richard Parker showing the development of the harbour over five centuries based on five fantastic new drawings.
7.00pm	'Pop up History!' Custom House Short monologues presented by community performers based on reminiscences gathered as part of the community history exhibition.
7.30pm	Premiere of Onedin Line Redux Transit Shed A recreation of scenes from the popular seventies TV series originally filmed at Exeter Quay – Art Work Exeter.
All Day Saturday	Take a trip on the River Exe Swan Boat (land based version) - 3pm to 9pm with Burn the Curtain Theatre Co. (booking from 2pm at Customs House) Community History Exhibition Art Work Exeter – Custom House

11:00am	Cannon Firing opens the event Exeter Folk Orchestra
11:30am	Historic Quay walk With the Red Coats. 'Aargh' Walkabout with musical pirates on galleon roller blades!
12.00pm	Arrival of 'Britannia,' An historic fishing smack built in 1914. She will be hauled by Exeter Sea Cadets accompanied by music from Mariners Away shanty crew onboard. Moored at head of basin alongside Topsham Brewery.
12.15pm	Speech by Chair of Britannia Sailing Trust
12.30pm	'Liberty Sisters' and South West Lindyhoppers 1940's close harmony singers and dancers.
1.00pm	Traction Engines The engines will be going for 'steam-about'. Historic Quay Walk 'Aargh' See above.
1.15pm	'Mariner's Away'
1.30pm	Talk 1 Haven Banks Outdoor Centre Follow your Noses: Fish, Tallow and Beer along the 1920s waterfront – a talk about the businesses around the Quay in the 1920s and the people who worked there. Julia Neville - DEI Exeter West Quarter Project
2.15pm	'Liberty Sisters' and South West Lindyhoppers
2.30pm	Talk 2 Haven Banks Outdoor Centre Life on board the Nonsuch and the Golden Hind, in the 1970s – by John Cadd. John sailed on both the Nonsuch (into Exeter via the ship canal) and the Golden Hind replica ships in the 1970s. John Cadd – South West Maritime History Society
3.00pm	Historic Quay Walk
3.15pm	'Out of Tunas' shanty crew
3.30pm	Talk 3 Haven Banks Outdoor Centre Devon History Society Exeter's way to the Sea, the story of the quay and ship canal (1590-1970) J Turner – South West Maritime History
4.00pm	Performance by Kim Squirrell aboard Snark Close of event Cannon Firing

All Events Free and Open to All

All Day Sunday	Take a trip on the River Exe Swan Boat (land based version) - 12pm to 4pm with Burn the Curtain Theatre Co. (booking from 2pm at Customs House)
	Free taster sessions with Saddles & Paddles - 11am to 4pm Pop in or call them to book your free one hour session on a range of watersports.
	Informal public tours of 'Snark' and 'Britannia.'
	Maritime Market
	Family activities with Double Elephant Print Workshop
	Community History Exhibition Art Work Exeter – Custom House
	Guy Parker's 'Open Shed' (Part of Red Coat tour itinerary)

All sunday events at Piazza Terracina unless otherwise stated.

www.exetercustomhouse.co.uk